VERBAL REPORTS

A. MORGAN HILL-SAN MARTIN SUBSTANCE ABUSE PARTNERSHIP FOLLOW UP

Francisco Dominquez, Morgan Hill-Sam Martin Substance Abuse representative, presented and described his organization, which is connected with the Public Safety Committee to stop/prevent teens and kids from drinking and using drugs. Also, he informed YAC members about an informational meeting to apply to be a Youth Advocate, of which there are 10 positions available. He described the duties of a Youth Advocate as an internship which would require about 10-15 hours a month. He encouraged all YAC members to apply for this position.

B. TEEN CENTER SOCIAL NIGHT ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, FROM 6 TO 9:30PM REPORT

Member Patel reported that she was not able to attend this social night, however Member Schenkelberg reported that it was an unsuccessful night. Very few teens attended. These teens were more interested in using the computers the entire time. No snacks were sold in the Juice bar. Publicity and marketing strategies are needed to promote the Teen Center and the activities offered in it as well.

C. ON-LINE ETHICS TRAINING REPORT

Member Goodere reported that she completed the on-line training. The training took her about 2 ½ hours. She took few quizzes to complete the training. Member Harthun was not present.

D. YAC WEBSITE REPORT

Item no discussed. Member Miller was absent.

E. SENIOR CITIZEN BALL REPORT

Member Patel reported that the Senior Citizen Ball sub- committee meetings will be every Tuesday at 5:30 pm at the CCC. The sub-committee will ask Rosy's at the Beach and Mama Mia's restaurant for menu estimation to cater this event. The advertisement for this event is planned to start on March 1st. Morgan Hill Bible Church will support the YAC with the new design for the flyer as they did last year.

F. MH YOUTH LEADER PROGRAM.

Member Bondi reported that the Youth Leadership subcommittee meetings are every Tuesday at 4:30 pm at the CCC. This program will be lead by Steve Tate, Mayor of Morgan Hill, and YAC Member and chair of this sub-committee Samantha Bondi. Mayor Tate and Member Bondi have great ideas, and activities that are being evaluated in each meeting.

G. YAC MEMBERS INTERESTED IN WORKING FOR CITY

Marilyn Librers, Parks and Recreation Commissioner reported that YAC members are not eligible to be employed by the City of Morgan Hill due to a conflict of interest.

H. YAC HOLIDAY GATHERING

Member I. Bañuelos reported that YAC members met in their own time on Thursday, December 21 at 5pm at MH Denny's Restaurant.
